

Societal awareness of sustainability

Indicator 10 Awareness of the issue of sustainability in society

Objective defining the desired end state

Sustainable development is a topic in society.

Underlying assumptions and considerations for the operationalization

Public awareness of the concerns and issues of sustainable development expresses the fact that the idea of sustainability is valued in society. The presence of sustainability as a topic in societal discourse indicates at least the degree of acceptance of education for sustainable development as a concern.

Criterion

Public awareness and acceptance of the idea of sustainability.

Level: -

Location: Context

Characteristic: Quantitative

Function of ESD

Superordinate

In reference to the UNECE indicators

Indicator 10 does not have an equivalent in the UNECE indicators.

In analogy to the OECD indicators

Indicator 10 does not have an equivalent in the OECD indicators.